Court of the Two Sisters

615 ROYAL ST.
NEW ORLEANS

The Romantic Rendezvous

for lovers of Famous New Orleans Creole and French Dishes in the Vieux Carré's Largest and most Beautiful Patio.

H. Bank, Co. K, 167th Inf, MacDillfield, Fla.

The Court of the Two Sisters is the loveliest and most spacious patio in the French Quarter. It gained its name from the fact that two sisters for many years conducted a notion and variety store at this site. The former residence of Governor Perier Cenier, who ruled the French Colony from 1726 to 1733, a mecca for thousands of New Orleans visitors.

Dear Daddy: Tues. 4:30PM

I got the box yesterday, and it was real good. I got a letter from Lottie and also Aunt Annie today. All are well in N. Y. I got a letter from Nelson in Miami and asked me to come to see him some weekend. Neotucutug! Wrote Mother a long letter today. Hope business is fine. Hear from Bert lately? How is the poker games? Hope your luck keeps up. It is a beautiful day here today, and I likeit. I called Mrs. Moore, and went to see them, and they were not in. Love, Harold
